

Agricultural Skill Council of India, Gurgaon, New Delhi

- Mutually agree to conduct the Training Program as per National Skill Qualification Framework, Assessment & Certification and Train the Trainers, Skill Development Centers / Training Institutes, Manpower & Infrastructure required, Recognition to Prior Learning (RPL), Skill Gap Study and Labour Market Information System (LMIS).
- Mutually agree to develop National Occupational Standards, Qualification Packs, Curriculum and Course Content for the various segments of Agriculture. PJTSAU can support ASCI in development of the same in terms of the Technical Knowhow, Validations and others as per the requirement.

Website Link: www.asci-india.com